

The Johnson Conservation Commission has two vacancies, and we are seeking applicants. The Conservation Commission serves a critical role in the preserving the natural resources of Johnson. Member responsibilities typically include setting policies, organizing volunteers, and working to maintain our parks and trails. We hope to nominate candidates to serve as early as March 19th, 2018. If you are interested, or have questions, please contact Johnson Conservation Commission Chair Lois Frey at volunteerlois7263@gmail.com or me by email at tojadministrator@townofjohnson.com or by mail at PO Box 383, Johnson, VT 05656.
