

Eric Tobin is a highly regarded en plein air, landscape artist from Johnson. All of his work is painted outdoors where he captures the seasons of Vermont in real time. Winter, spring and fall are his favorite time to paint. His painting of the former Bill Holmes Farm in Johnson is a reminder of the area's agricultural heritage. The Johnson Historical Society appreciates the donation of this lovely (37 1/2" x 31 1/2") painting, Winters Hush Johnson in support of our Capital Campaign.

Raffle tickets are available at the Holcomb House, at business venues in town, and from members of the Historical Society. The drawing will be held on October 15th. To learn more about the painting and/or to arrange your purchase of raffle tickets for $10 each leave an inquiry at johnsonhs@myfairpoint.net or contact anyone listed below.
